

Climate Change Expert Profiles:

Expert Climate Finance

- Educated to degree level in administration, economics, management sciences, environmental governance or equivalent working experience in these areas.
- Several years professional experience within climate finance/ international and national climate funds/ environmental governance
- Experienced in setting up a national institutional framework for climate finance in developing countries
- Experienced in working in an international environment, especially with developing countries
- Previous work experience in technical cooperation, preferably with GIZ
- Understanding of international climate finance flows and the international climate finance debate
- Language skills: fluent in English, French or Spanish

Expert Public Finance

- Educated to degree level in economics, management sciences, environmental governance or equivalent working experience in these areas.
- Several years professional experience in Public Finance Management and Good Financial Governance
- Experienced in working in an international environment, especially with developing countries
- Previous work experience in technical cooperation, preferably with GIZ
- Understanding of international climate finance flows and the international climate finance debate
- Language skills: fluent in English, French or Spanish

Expert Strategic and Management Advise

- Several years professional experience in advising groups, offices and programmes
- Experienced in working in an international environment, especially with developing countries
- Familiar with the working processes of development cooperation
- Previous work experience in technical cooperation, preferably with GIZ
- Understanding of international climate finance flows and the international climate finance debate is of advantage
- Language skills: fluent in English / German

Expert Mitigation/Adaptation

- Educated to degree level in environmental studies, geography, politics or equivalent working experience in these areas.
- Professional experience in mitigation or adaptation programmes
- Extensive knowledge of global warming, adaptation strategies and/or mitigation programmes
- Understanding of financing options of adaptation and mitigation programmes
- Previous work experience in technical cooperation, preferably with GIZ
- Understanding of the international climate finance debate is of advantage
- Language skills: fluent in English, French or Spanish